We refer with especial pride to our advertisement of last week. Our sales aggregated considerably more than we expected. The four floors of our building were crowded continuously with buyers, and our force of employes was entirely too small to attend to their wants. We had no idea when we inaugurated the sale that it would result with anything but a partial success, but we were agreeably disappointed.

We will not enumerate anything particular this week, excepting a clearance of Odds and Ends that always accumulate more or less in a business like ours.
